AFFIDAVIT OF JEFFERY J. STEGENGA PURSUANT TO LOCAL BANKRUPTCY RULE 1007-2 IN SUPPORT OF FIRST DAY MOTIONS

Jeffery J. Stegenga declares, pursuant to section 1746 of title 28 of the United States Code, as follows:

1. I am a Managing Director of Alvarez & Marsal North America LLC (“A&M”) and the Chief Restructuring Officer (“CRO”) of the above captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, “Blockbuster” or the “Debtors”). Concurrently herewith, the Debtors have filed an application to employ and retain A&M to serve as restructuring advisors to the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases (the “Chapter 11 Cases”). Prior to the Commencement

<sup>1</sup> The Debtors, together with the last four digits of each Debtor’s federal tax identification number, are: Blockbuster Inc. (5102); Blockbuster Canada Inc. (1269); Blockbuster Digital Technologies Inc. (9222); Blockbuster Distribution, Inc. (0610); Blockbuster Gift Card Inc. (1855); Blockbuster Global Services Inc. (3019); Blockbuster International Spain Inc. (7615); Blockbuster Investments LLC (6313); Blockbuster Procurement LP (2546); Blockbuster Video Italy, Inc. (5068); Movielink, LLC (5575); Trading Zone Inc. (8588); and B<sup>2</sup> LLC (5219).

Date (as defined below), A&M served as restructuring advisors to the Debtors and, in my current capacity as CRO, I am familiar with the day-to-day operations, business, and financial affairs of each of the Debtors.

2. I submit this affidavit (“Affidavit”) pursuant to Rule 1007-2 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York (the “Local Bankruptcy Rules”) to assist the Court and other parties in interest in understanding the circumstances that compelled the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases on September 23, 2010 (the “Commencement Date”) and in support of: (i) the Debtors’ petitions (the “Petitions”) for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”); and (ii) the relief, in the form of motions and applications, that the Debtors have requested of the Court (collectively, the “First Day Motions”).

3. The First Day Motions seek relief aimed at preserving the value of Blockbuster and maintaining the continuity of its operations by, among other things:

- (i) maintaining the operations of Blockbuster’s retail properties; (ii) preserving Blockbuster’s relationships with its customers, landlords, licensees, franchisees, and strategic business partners;
- (iii) maintaining vendor confidence and employee morale; (iv) ensuring the continuation of Blockbuster’s cash management system and other business operations without interruption; and
- (v) establishing certain administrative procedures to facilitate an orderly transition into, and uninterrupted operations throughout, the chapter 11 reorganization process.

4. Except as otherwise indicated, all facts set forth in this Affidavit are based upon my personal knowledge, my discussions with members of Blockbuster’s senior management, Blockbuster’s financial and legal advisors, my review of relevant documents, or my opinion based upon my experience, knowledge, and information concerning Blockbuster’s operations and financial affairs. If called upon to testify, I would testify to the facts set forth in this Affidavit and that I am authorized to submit this Affidavit on behalf of the Debtors.

5. Sections I through III of this Affidavit provide a general overview of Blockbuster's business, organizational structure, capital structure, the circumstances giving rise to the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases, and certain of Blockbuster's restructuring goals. Section IV summarizes the relief requested in each of the First Day Motions. Finally, Section V lists the schedules of information required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2.

I.

BLOCKBUSTER'S BUSINESS

6. More than twenty five years ago, Blockbuster became the first national retail chain provider of in-home entertainment, with its blue and gold torn-ticket logo symbolizing the decision by consumers to forego the movie theatre experience and "Make it a Blockbuster Night"® by staying home to watch the latest in new movie title releases from the convenience of their living rooms. Since that time, Blockbuster's mission has been – and remains – to provide its customers with the most convenient access to media entertainment by making movies and games available to them anyway they want it.

7. Well-known for its established retail footprint of "bricks and mortar" stores throughout the United States and abroad, Blockbuster, in keeping pace with the evolution of media distribution methods, recently expanded its presence into the by-mail and digital channels of distribution, in addition to enlarging its retail reach by rolling out branded vending kiosks. Because of these multiple channels of distribution, Blockbuster offers customers a value-priced entertainment experience, combining the broad array of product of a specialty retailer with the convenience of a local neighborhood retailer, all under a single well-known, identifiable, and reliable brand. To preserve its three-decade long developed brand value, Blockbuster seeks a restructuring that permits a significant deleveraging of its business so that it can move forward at the digital clip at which its industry and competitors are currently running and not only meet, but exceed, customer demand and expectation so that Blockbuster remains their first choice amongst distributors of personal media entertainment. The below section provides detail as to Blockbuster's business and its prepetition efforts to reach these transformative goals outside the purview of chapter 11.

A. Domestic Operations

1. Distribution Channels

8. As described above, in the United States, Blockbuster makes its product available to customers via three types of distribution channels: (i) retail (inclusive of both its stores and vending kiosks); (ii) by-mail; and (iii) digital.

a. Retail Channel

9. The convenience offered to customers by having Blockbuster stores located in their cities, towns, and neighborhoods has been instrumental in establishing the BLOCKBUSTER® brand. As further detailed in the chart attached hereto as Exhibit "A", as of August 29, 2010, there were 3,306 stores operating under the BLOCKBUSTER® brand in the United States and its territories. Of these stores, 2,924 are owned and operated by Blockbuster Inc. ("BBF") and 382 stores are owned and operated by franchisees. Blockbuster stores offer movies and games (collectively, "Product") for rent and purchase (both new and previously-viewed) as well as other entertainment related consumer electronics and accessories, game consoles, confection, and movie-related merchandise for purchase. Additionally, approximately 240 of these locations include store-in-store game locations operating under the GAME RUSH® brand.

10. In step with its continued commitment to be the premier retailer of new release movies, Blockbuster has recently focused on promoting its rapidly emerging availability advantage over certain of its key competitors, who do not have access to key new Product for the initial 28 days of release (the “28-day Window”). In 2009, the 28-day Window was imposed by certain movie studios (each a “Studio” and, collectively, the “Studios”) on the rental of newly released titles after the initial distribution date of a title (the “Street Date”) so as to diminish the effect of rental on the retail sale of such titles. Given that a substantial portion of Blockbuster’s rental revenues are derived from the rental of such new release Product, Blockbuster’s advantage with respect to the 28-day Window is expected to maintain and improve its customer preference and loyalty in comparison to its competitors.

11. To expand its retail reach, in early 2009, Blockbuster entered into an agreement with NCR Corporation (“NCR”) to launch BLOCKBUSTER Express® branded vending kiosks to compete directly with a competitor that provides movie rentals through vending kiosks and has expanded rapidly into Blockbuster’s markets. Through this partnership, NCR deploys, operates, and maintains the kiosks and pays royalties to Blockbuster on the revenues generated. This agreement allows Blockbuster to compete directly with such competitors in the popular vending kiosk channel without incurring capital expenditures and start-up costs on its own account, while making Product more convenient and less expensive for its customers. As of September 19, 2010, there were approximately 6,630 kiosks operating under the BLOCKBUSTER Express® brand throughout the United States and its territories.

b. By-Mail Channel

12. Blockbuster offers a by-mail subscription program through its retail chain and through its website, www.blockbuster.com, whereby customers rent Product that is delivered directly to them by-mail. The by-mail subscription program provides customers access to substantially more Product than is available in its stores, and allows Blockbuster to compete directly with the primary offering of certain of its competitors. In contrast to the comparably-priced basic by-mail subscription of such competitors, Blockbuster offers: (i) a wide selection of games and (ii) Blu-ray Product at no additional charge. Through its BLOCKBUSTER Total Access™ program (“Total Access”), Blockbuster customers can augment their subscription with the ability to exchange up to five online movie rentals for in-store movies at its retail locations for only a few dollars more per month. The by-mail subscription program allows Blockbuster to reach customers located in geographic areas where it does not operate store locations.

13. In order to promote the synergies between its retail and by-mail channels of distribution and to profitably grow its by-mail customer base, Blockbuster recently launched a marketing partnership with Comcast Cable Corporation (“Comcast”). This partnership includes the launch of DVDs by Mail, a co-branded by-mail offer available at www.DVDsbymail.com. As part of the marketing partnership, Comcast customers are now being offered Blockbuster’s by-mail services (both by-mail and Total Access-like products) through the new co-branded web site as an additional service within their Comcast package. On the site, customers can browse Blockbuster’s vast library of more than 95,000 movie and television titles, create a queue of titles they want to rent, and then get the DVDs through the mail or at a Blockbuster retail store, where they can also exchange their rentals. In turn, Blockbuster is installing Comcast-dedicated kiosks in select stores that allow customers to quickly and easily learn about, and sign up for, Comcast services.

14. Through this offering, it is anticipated that Comcast customers will have a broader range of options within their Comcast package for getting their movies and television programs. They can rent new releases the same day the titles are available in stores for rental and purchase, and in many cases 28 days before Blockbuster's competitors have them, and weeks or months before they are offered on cable pay channels and on-demand services.

Blockbuster believes that the partnership will provide it with a cost-effective method for growing the reach and scale of its by-mail subscription programs, leverage the power of its retail stores and provide a template for mutually beneficial partnerships with other cable companies and media outlets.

c. Digital Channel

15. As new distribution channels have emerged and as consumer interest in accessing Product in new ways has grown, Blockbuster has begun to expand its footprint into the digital realm. To that end, Blockbuster's digital business currently offers its customers on-demand access to one of the largest libraries of digital movies for both rental and sale through multiple formats. Blockbuster began its digital initiatives with the purchase of Movielink from a consortium of movie studios in 2007.

16. Through Blockbuster's website, www.blockbuster.com, Blockbuster customers can download and view movies on their personal computers after downloading Blockbuster's PC application. In addition, with the convergence of media entertainment and electronic devices, Blockbuster recently entered into strategic partnerships with certain global third party consumer electronics device developers – including Samsung, Philips, TiVo, and Toshiba – to digitally deliver media entertainment to its customers through consumer electronics such as Internet-connected TVs and Blu-ray players through Blockbuster applications embedded in these devices. In the mobile space, Blockbuster has partnered with device makers such as Motorola and HTC, embedding Blockbuster's digital applications in its popular new models for Verizon and T-Mobile. Blockbuster is also pursuing partnerships with Cable TV providers to offer Blockbuster-branded video-on-demand services (“VoD”) inside an operator’s set-top-box infrastructure.

17. Blockbuster’s digital service is unique in several ways. First, most new release movie titles are available generally upon the physical Street Date of the movie, unlike certain of its competitors, whose digital content is available at least 6 months later than, and usually years after, the physical Street Date release. Second, any movie purchased or rented digitally from Blockbuster is playable across all BLOCKBUSTER® branded digital applications regardless of who manufactures the device. For example, a customer can buy a digital movie using their Samsung Blu-ray player and play it back on their Motorola Droid X phone. Finally, Blockbuster’s digital service incorporates access to Blockbuster’s other channels. For example, customers can see real-time store inventory, manage their by-mail queue and find store locations directly from certain digital devices.

18. Blockbuster believes that its digital initiatives are integral to the transformation of its business, and that the digital channel will play a principal role in the success of the restructured entity upon exit from chapter 11.

2. *Relationship with the Studios

19. As a distributor of media entertainment, Blockbuster is completely dependent on maintaining a positive relationship with its Studios and game suppliers. As was previously noted, the content acquired by Blockbuster for its various channels of distribution is unique to the particular Studio or game developer that created the Product. Thus, maintaining strong relationships with these vendors and, in turn, ensuring consistent continuity of supply of Product at competitive price levels is perhaps the most critical element contributing to the ongoing viability of the Blockbuster economic model.

20. Blockbuster typically enters into one of the following types of transactions with the Studios to purchase Product: (i) fixed-buy (each a “Fixed Buy Transaction”); (ii) copy-depth (each a “Copy-Depth Transaction”); or (iii) revenue sharing (each a “Revenue Sharing Transaction”).

21. These transaction types allow Blockbuster the ability to structure its purchases in a manner that maximizes its ability to generate revenue. Specifically, a Fixed-Buy Transaction is a transaction whereby Blockbuster enters into an agreement with a Studio to purchase Product for a single up-front lump sum payment. Under a typical Fixed-Buy Transaction, at the conclusion of the initial rental cycle, the Product is converted to previously rented product (“PRP”) and made available to customers for purchase, increasing Blockbuster’s revenue generating opportunities.

22. A Copy-Depth Transaction is a transaction whereby Blockbuster agrees to purchase Product with an attendant obligation to destroy a certain percentage of such Product by a certain date for: (i) a single up-front lump sum payment; and (ii) to the extent Blockbuster destroys less than the required destruction percentage, an additional per-Product payment for the Product subject to destruction and not destroyed. Similar to Fixed-Buy Transactions, at the conclusion of the initial rental cycle, the Product that is not destroyed becomes PRP that is available for purchase.

23. Pursuant to a Revenue Sharing Transaction, Blockbuster agrees to pay the Studio, for a certain period of time: (i) a percentage of the proceeds from the rental and sale of the Product; and/or (ii) a per transaction fee from the rental and sale of the Product (the “Revenue Share Fee”). In certain instances, the Revenue Share Fee may also be coupled with an up-front payment to be made by Blockbuster either as cash in advance or within a certain time period following the delivery of the Product. Revenue-Sharing Transactions generally provide for a lower initial payment in exchange for certain minimum purchase requirements and Revenue Share Fees. In addition, unlike Fixed-Buy and Copy-Depth Transactions, a majority of the Studios require that a portion of the product be destroyed at the conclusion of the initial rental cycle instead of being converted to PRP, which forecloses to Blockbuster any additional revenue opportunity.

24. Blockbuster typically prefers to enter into Revenue-Sharing and Copy-Depth Transactions with the Studios, as they allow the company to stock increased quantities of Product without a significant use of upfront working capital. Blockbuster is then able to satisfy an increased number of customers with that Product, particularly in the first few weeks that the Product is available. Ultimately, the Studios are able to enjoy the benefits of these arrangements as well, as they share in revenues generated from increased customer volume.

3. *Other Vendor Relationships

25. Blockbuster purchases general merchandise that is complementary to its movie and game inventory, such as confection, game consoles, electronic accessories, and consumer electronics, from a variety of suppliers on a product-by-product basis. Blockbuster offers this general merchandise for sale in its retail locations and accounts for such sales separate from that of movies and games. The availability of these products in Blockbuster’s stores – such as tubs of popcorn, bags of licorice, and related-movie merchandise – enhance the overall customer experience so that renting a movie at Blockbuster is akin to that of going to the movies.

4. *Employees, Distribution and Inventory Management

26. In connection with its domestic operations, Blockbuster currently employs approximately 25,500 employees, of whom approximately 7,500 are full-time and approximately 18,000 are part-time. Approximately 22,500 employees (88%) are paid on an hourly basis and approximately 3,000 employees (12%) are paid a fixed salary. Blockbuster's employees perform a variety of critical functions, including customer service, inventory control, management, leasing, accounting, marketing, purchasing and sales, shipping, tax, technical services, and legal services.

27. With respect to its retail and by-mail channels, Blockbuster currently manages its inventory out of an 850,000 square foot distribution center located in McKinney, Texas, which operates 24 hours a day, five days a week. This distribution center is an automated, centralized facility used to mechanically repack and prepare newly-released Product for rental at domestic stores. Blockbuster also uses the distribution center to restock Product and process returns, as well as to provide office space. Blockbuster uses a network of third-party delivery agents for delivery of merchandise from the McKinney distribution center to its domestic stores.

28. In addition to the McKinney distribution center, Blockbuster operates 39 distribution centers located strategically across the United States to support Blockbuster's by-mail subscription program. Blockbuster uses the United States Postal Service to distribute movies and games from each of these strategically located distribution centers, which enables it to reach over 90% of its by-mail customer base within one business day. Each of these distribution centers operates 16 hours a day, five days a week.

B. International Operations

29. Blockbuster's international operations, which serve as ambassadors of the BLOCKBUSTER® brand, are comprised of all store operations outside the United States and its territories, including: (i) owned retail operations in Canada, the United Kingdom, Denmark, Italy, Mexico, Argentina, and Uruguay; and (ii) franchised retail operations in Australia, Brazil, Chile, Columbia, Guatemala, Israel, Italy, Mexico, New Zealand, Panama, Portugal, and Taiwan. As of August 29, 2010, Blockbuster had 2,333 stores in 16 markets outside of the United States operating under the BLOCKBUSTER® and GAME RUSH® brands. During 2008 and 2009, 29% and 30% of Blockbuster's revenues were generated outside of the United States, respectively. Blockbuster's international operations have historically been more dependent than the domestic operations on retail sales and, in particular, sales of games, as opposed to revenue generated from rentals.

C. Franchised Operations

30. As of August 29, 2010, there were approximately 380 stores operated by franchisees domestically and 720 stores operated by franchisees internationally. Blockbuster's reported revenues do not include the revenues generated by its franchisees; however, Blockbuster's reported revenues include royalty and franchise fee revenues generated from its franchised operations. Each franchisee has control over all operating and pricing decisions at its respective location and has sole responsibility for all financial commitments relating to the development, opening, and operation of its stores, including rent, utilities, payroll, and other capital and incidental expenses.

II.

ORGANIZATIONAL AND CAPITAL STRUCTURE

A. Organizational Structure

31. Blockbuster's business and operations were previously conducted by Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation, which was incorporated in Delaware in 1982 and entered the movie rental business in 1985. Blockbuster Inc. ("BBI"), formerly an indirect subsidiary of Viacom Inc. ("Viacom"), was incorporated under the name SBQ, Inc. on October 16, 1989 in Delaware. On September 29, 1994, Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation was merged with, and into, Viacom. Subsequent to the merger, BBI's business and operations were conducted by various indirect subsidiaries of Viacom. From this time through July 1999, the business and operations of these various subsidiaries were either: (i) merged into BBI; (ii) contributed to BBI; or (iii) purchased by BBI and/or one of its subsidiaries. In August of 1999, BBI consummated the initial public offering of its stock. In October 2004, BBI split off from Viacom and became a fully independent company.

32. Exhibit "B" attached hereto contains a chart that summarizes the Debtors' current corporate structure.

B. Prepetition Indebtedness and Capital Structure

33. Equity. From August 11, 1999, following BBI's initial public offering, until July 7, 2010, shares of Blockbuster's Class A common stock traded on the New York Stock Exchange (the "Exchange") under the symbol "BBI". From October 14, 2004, following BBI's divestiture from Viacom, until July 7, 2010, shares of BBI Class B common stock traded on the Exchange under the symbol "BBI.B". On July 7, 2010, BBI's Class A and Class B common stock were delisted from the Exchange, as described in more detail below. Shares of BBI's Class A and Class B common stock are currently traded exclusively on the Pink OTCQB market under the symbols BLOKA and BLOKB, respectively. As of September 2, 2010, there were approximately 152,000,000 shares of Class A common stock issued and outstanding and 72,000,000 shares of Class B common stock issued and outstanding.

34. Blockbuster also had approximately 33,000 shares of its 7.5% Series A Cumulative Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock issued and outstanding as of August 6, 2010.

35. Senior Secured Notes. Blockbuster issued approximately $675 million aggregate principal amount of 11.75% senior secured notes due October 1, 2014 (the “Senior Secured Notes”) pursuant to that certain indenture agreement, dated as of October 1, 2009. The Senior Secured Notes were sold in a private offering to qualified institutional investors, institutional accredited investors, and to persons outside the United States pursuant to Regulation S in accordance with the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). Interest on the Senior Secured Notes is payable quarterly in arrears and, on each interest payment date, Blockbuster is required to redeem 3.333% of the aggregate original principal amount of the Senior Secured Notes at a redemption price of 106% of the principal amount thereof. The Senior Secured Notes are senior secured obligations of BBI and are guaranteed by its affiliate Debtors. The Senior Secured Notes and the guarantees are secured by first-priority liens on substantially all of the Debtors’ tangible and intangible assets. The issuance of the Senior Secured Notes served to refinance BBI’s prior secured credit facility ahead of the commencement of significant amortization payments on that facility, as described in greater detail below. As of the Commencement Date, the outstanding principal amount of the Senior Secured Notes was $630 million.

36. Senior Subordinated Notes. Blockbuster issued approximately $300 million aggregate principal amount of 9.0% senior subordinated notes due September 1, 2012

(the “Senior Subordinated Notes”) pursuant to that certain indenture agreement, dated as of August 20, 2004. The Senior Subordinated Notes are unsecured and were sold in a private offering to qualified institutional investors, institutional accredited investors, and to persons outside the United States pursuant to Regulation S in accordance with the Exchange Act. Interest on the Senior Subordinated Notes is payable semiannually in arrears. As of the Commencement Date, the outstanding principal amount of the Senior Subordinated Notes was $300 million. The Senior Subordinated Notes are contractually subordinated to the Senior Secured Notes.

37. In addition to the foregoing, Blockbuster estimates that as of the Commencement Date, it has approximately $57 million in outstanding accounts payable, exclusive of lease obligations and the majority of Studio-related obligations.

III.

KEY EVENTS LEADING TO THE CHAPTER 11 CASES AND RESTRUCTURING GOALS

38. As further described in Blockbuster’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, all of which are incorporated herein by reference, Blockbuster’s financial challenges result from trends in general macroeconomic conditions; increased industry competition and fragmentation; balancing the sectoral decline of Blockbuster’s largest distribution channel with the ascension of emerging channels, such as vending and digital, unsustainable levels of debt, and certain other factors. Blockbuster believes that the significance of these financial challenges necessitates the restructuring of its outstanding debt and that, by reducing its debt levels, the restructuring will provide greater value to its stakeholders than any other alternative course of action. The below sections detail the challenges Blockbuster has faced over the past several years, its efforts to reorganize outside of chapter 11, the key events leading to these Chapter 11 Cases, and the Debtors' overall restructuring goals.

A. Challenges to the Business

39. Blockbuster has faced a number of challenges in recent years, which, taken together, have had a negative impact on its overall financial performance. Recently, declining revenues have been driven by: (i) increased competition in the media entertainment industry from alternative forms of entertainment; (ii) technological advances that have changed the landscape of the industry; (iii) changing consumer preferences; (iv) the rapid growth of disruptive new competitors; and (v) the general economic environment. Given these rapid changes and the difficult operating environment of the past several years, the Debtors' ability to transform their business in response to this ever-changing landscape was severely hindered by the high level of debt that the business had incurred during earlier periods of significantly lower competition and higher operating performance.

40. Likely the largest challenge that Blockbuster has faced in the past several years is the rapid rise of new competitors that use alternative distribution methods to meet customer demand. These competitors have garnered substantial market share and have eroded the size of Blockbuster's traditional "brick and mortar" retail store based customer market, resulting in a decline in revenues. While Blockbuster has successfully launched its own channels of distribution in the by-mail and, through its partnership with NCR, vending kiosk markets, the revenues and profits from these new channels have not offset the negative economic results from the reduced traffic within, and downsizing of, its traditional store-based channel, which historically carried stronger margins than these other channels.

41. In addition to competitors that rent, sell, or trade Product in new ways, Blockbuster has also faced an overall decline in the market for the rental and sale of physical discs, as competition has increased with providers of direct delivery media entertainment – such as direct broadcast satellite, cable television (particularly on-demand and pay-per-view offerings), growing penetration of broadband Internet access, TiVo/DVR, and the growth of digital retailers such as Apple's iTunes service and Amazon. While Blockbuster has made great strides in adapting so as to maintain pace with its new competitors in the market, there are still significant restructuring steps that Blockbuster must take to regain profitability and realign its business to the changed marketplace, which have been limited due to Blockbuster's capital structure.

42. In response to continued economic challenges and a changing media entertainment industry, Blockbuster took a number of proactive steps in 2009 and 2010 to strengthen its balance sheet and improve liquidity as it attempted to reposition and transform itself into a multi-channel brand well-equipped to compete in the new marketplace. These steps included: (i) reducing general and administrative expenses, which resulted in a $333 million decrease in 2009 and an anticipated $248 million decrease in 2010; (ii) closing unprofitable and underperforming domestic stores and liquidating excess and/or unproductive inventory; (iii) evaluating (and in the case of Ireland, executing) the divestiture of certain of its international assets; (iv) completing two refinancing transactions in 2009 to extend debt maturities and amortization schedules; (v) negotiating the release of significant restricted cash associated with letters of credit relating to historical lease guarantees; and (vi) granting certain Studios a security interest in the assets of the Canadian operation in exchange for enhanced credit terms. Over the past two years, Blockbuster has closed 1,061 domestic company-operated stores, which had an overall positive impact on EBITDA due to a reduction in operating expenses. In addition, Blockbuster maintained global capital expenditures at maintenance levels of approximately $30 million in 2009 and, prior to the filing of these Chapter 11 Cases, has maintained these levels through 2010 as well.

43. Additionally, Blockbuster has for the last two years been operating in one of the most challenging economic environments since the Great Depression. During this time, the world economy and in particular the domestic economy, has suffered a severe economic downturn. Generally, domestic unemployment has remained high and consumer spending has remained low. As a result, customer sensitivity to changes in pricing and convenience has increased, negatively impacting the performance of most retailers, including Blockbuster.

44. In addition to the operating and competitive challenges outlined above, Blockbuster has been constrained in its ability to invest in its business by significant leverage and debt service requirements relative to its declining revenues and operating income. At several points over the past several years, the Debtors have experienced significant liquidity constraints and have had difficulty accessing capital. Blockbuster has substantial debt service obligations, including material redemption obligations, and has experienced decreased earnings due to the continuing challenges of the changing industry in which it operates and the macroeconomic environment.

B. Refinancing of Existing Credit Facility

45. In February 2009, Blockbuster engaged Rothschild Inc. (“Rothschild”) as its investment banker and financial advisor to assist in evaluating capital structure and financing alternatives. At this time, during the depths of the global financial crisis, Blockbuster was facing the imminent maturity of its revolving credit facility (which was its primary source of liquidity), with effectively no access to new capital given the state of the bank and bond markets and the accelerating deterioration of its financial performance.

46. At that time, Blockbuster had no realistic financing alternatives other than to replace, in May 2009, its maturing revolver with a steeply amortizing term loan that carried high rates of interest and fees and an amortization schedule that significantly reduced available liquidity and constrained operations. Liquidity was modestly supplemented shortly before closing this transaction through the sale of Blockbuster's operations in Ireland and the liquidation of excess game inventory.

47. In October 2009, after improvement in the capital markets, Blockbuster completed the successful issuance of the Senior Secured Notes to refinance the existing credit facility term loans ahead of the commencement of significant amortization payments that would occur in 2010 and 2011. The issuance of the Senior Secured Notes, while still carrying quarterly amortization requirements, provided Blockbuster with significant extension of maturities and additional liquidity. With the additional liquidity, Blockbuster was able to invest in increasing inventory levels and advertising outlays to execute its business plan for the key 2009 holiday season.

C. Fiscal Year 2009 Performance Results and Initial Restructuring Negotiations

48. The fourth quarter of 2009 proved to be extraordinarily difficult for Blockbuster, driven in particular by fierce and unprecedented competition on rentals and retail sales, particularly from: (i) the continued rapid expansion of certain of its key competitors; (ii) deeply discounted sales of new-release titles by big-box retailers; (iii) the failure at the time to secure the anticipated 28-day Window advantage on key titles ahead of the holidays; and (iv) the poor performance in the holiday season of certain retail inventory. As a result of these events, operating results and period-ending liquidity for the quarter and the year ended January 3, 2010 fell significantly short of projections. In fiscal year 2009, revenues generated by the Debtors' domestic segment decreased by 15.6%, declining same store comparables resulted in a $1.0 billion decrease in revenue, and Blockbuster reported a loss of $558.2 million.

49. Public disclosure of preliminary guidance relating to these results led to significant declines in the trading prices of all of Blockbuster's securities, adverse media attention, and triggered material tightening of trade credit in both the domestic and international operations, further reducing liquidity. Facing a renewed need to consider its restructuring options, in February 2010, Blockbuster reengaged Rothschild to assist in evaluating its liquidity situation, capital structure alternatives, including strategic partnerships and divestitures, and certain other recapitalization opportunities.

50. Shortly thereafter, Blockbuster, Rothschild, and attorneys for the Debtors, Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP ("Weil"), initiated discussions with Houlihan, Lokey, Howard & Zukin Inc. ("Houlihan Lokey") and Sidley Austin LLP ("Sidley Austin"), financial and legal advisors, respectively, to an ad hoc group of holders of the Senior Secured Notes (the "Sponsoring Noteholders"), and Moelis & Co. ("Moelis") and Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP ("Paul Weiss"), financial and legal advisors, respectively, to an ad hoc group of holders of the Senior Subordinated Notes (the "Senior Subordinated Noteholders"). The discussions and negotiations with these constituencies related to, among other things: (i) an infusion of capital by such noteholder groups and/or a strategic or financial partner; and (ii) a recapitalization of Blockbuster pursuant to an out-of-court exchange transaction or under a "pre-packaged" or "pre-arranged" plan of reorganization under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

51. As these discussions progressed, Blockbuster's business continued to decline. On March 24, 2010, Blockbuster received notice from the Exchange that it was not in compliance with the Exchange's continued listing standard. In addition to this, trade credit continued to tighten. As a means of boosting liquidity ahead of an approximately $43.0 million payment of amortization and interest on the Senior Secured Notes due on April 1, 2010, Blockbuster entered into a lien agreement pledging the unencumbered collateral of Blockbuster's non-Debtor Canadian operations to certain studios in exchange for an additional 30 days of credit terms (the "Canadian Lien").

52. Rothschild's analysis of Blockbuster's financial condition and then-current business plan indicated that Blockbuster required an infusion of new capital of approximately $100 million and significant deleveraging through equitization of a material portion of the existing debt. Initially, the parties focused on the possibility of an out-of-court transaction involving an exchange of the Senior Subordinated Notes for equity (or a mixture of equity and debt), and a backstopped rights offering to Senior Subordinated Noteholders to raise the required new capital infusion, leaving the Senior Secured Notes in place without material amendment of their terms. After extensive negotiations and dialogue with Moelis, Paul Weiss, and certain large holders of the Senior Subordinated Notes, it became clear to Blockbuster and its advisors that this was not achievable.

53. In late April 2010, Blockbuster retained A&M to serve as restructuring advisors to the Debtors. In early July 2010, A&M's role was expanded to include my formal appointment as Chief Restructuring Officer to the Company. Since that time, I have been working in this capacity with the Debtors, a team of A&M professionals and other professionals from both Weil and Rothschild to assist Blockbuster in assessing the restructuring options for its ongoing debt obligations.

D. Deteriorating Performance Leads to Restructuring Negotiations with the Sponsoring Noteholders

54. By May 2010, it became clear that operating performance in the second quarter was running materially behind plan (after being largely on-plan in the first quarter). This lagging performance, combined with the tightening of credit by non-studio vendors and by certain Studios not participating in the Canadian Lien, compounded with poor operating performance and loss of trade credit at the international operations that normally repatriate material cash flow to the Debtors, led to a further deterioration of Blockbuster's liquidity.

55. Under the changing circumstances, Blockbuster and its advisors believed that the new capital required in a recapitalization that left the Senior Secured Notes untouched was now materially greater than the original estimate of $100 million, far above the indicated capacity of the Senior Subordinated Noteholder group, and that the liquidity runway was becoming materially shorter. At this time, the focus of the Debtors and their advisors shifted to negotiations with Houlihan Lokey and Sidley Austin on a recapitalization transaction whereby the Senior Secured Notes would exchange a portion of their debt for a substantial portion of the equity of a reorganized Blockbuster, to be executed most likely through a chapter 11 plan coupled with a debtor-in-possession financing ("DIP Facility") commitment by the Sponsoring Noteholders.

56. Despite the principal focus on the standalone recapitalization structure led by the Senior Secured Notes, Blockbuster and its advisors continued to maintain lines of communication with Moelis and Paul Weiss on potential in- or out-of-court structures and negotiated with, and provided due diligence materials to, numerous potential financial and/or strategic partners as alternative sponsors for an in- or out-of-court recapitalization or acquisition of Blockbuster. In particular, Blockbuster, its advisors and certain other stakeholders spent significant time through the spring and summer of 2010 pursuing advanced discussions for potential transactions with two separate large, financially capable strategic parties highly interested in Blockbuster, and varying degrees of discussions with several other financial and strategic investors. However, none of these potential transactions offered the Debtors the same deleveraging opportunity as that proposed by the Sponsoring Noteholders. In addition, many of these potential transactions did not have adequate financing or did not otherwise offer Blockbuster the business synergies essential to make a restructuring viable.

E. Fiscal Year 2010 Performance, Delisting of BBI Stock, and Effect on Restructuring Negotiations

57. As negotiations with the Sponsoring Noteholders were ongoing, during the second quarter ending July 4, 2010, Blockbuster again experienced significant shortfalls relative to plan both in terms of operating performance and liquidity. Moreover, despite Blockbuster's Board of Directors' efforts to cure the deficiencies raised by the Exchange in respect of its stock, such efforts did not receive the requisite stockholder approval at Blockbuster's 2010 annual meeting of stockholders. As a result, on July 1, 2010, the Exchange notified Blockbuster that trading of its common stock on the Exchange would be suspended prior to the opening of the market on July 7, 2010. Effective July 7, 2010, Blockbuster's Class A common stock and Class B common stock began trading on the Pink OTCQB market.

58. In light of these events and the tight liquidity situation that it faced, and in an effort to negotiate proposed debtor in possession financing, studio agreements, and a chapter 11 plan support agreement, Blockbuster negotiated and entered into an initial 45 day forbearance agreement (the "Forbearance Agreement") with holders of approximately 70% of its Senior Secured Notes with respect to the deferral of a $42.4 million payment of interest and principal due on July 1, 2010. The subsequent public disclosure of the disappointing second quarter results on August 13, 2010 again led to material declines in the trading prices of all Blockbuster's securities, significant adverse media attention, and further contraction of trade credit.

59. During the entirety of the forbearance period, certain members of Blockbuster's senior management and I, as well as representatives of Houlihan Lokey on behalf of the Sponsoring Noteholders, negotiated heavily with certain key Studios with respect to the terms of new trade agreements for Blockbuster (where the majority are set to expire by their terms by year's end), as the support of these key Studios is essential to the successful reorganization of the business. These negotiations took a substantial amount of time and effort and, as a result, the parties agreed to extend the terms of the initial forbearance period through September 30, 2010.

60. On September 1, 2010, in accordance with the terms of the Forbearance Agreement and the subordination provision in the Senior Notes indenture, Blockbuster did not make a scheduled coupon payment of $13.5 million on the Senior Subordinated Notes and entered into a 30 day grace period with respect to this payment.

61. As the end of the applicable forbearance and payment grace periods approached, Blockbuster determined that the most appropriate method to protect the interests of its stakeholders and to maximize the value of its business enterprise, was to seek protection under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

F. Restructuring Goals

62. As noted above, since May, Blockbuster and its advisors have worked extensively with the Sponsoring Noteholders, their advisors, and other stakeholders to advance and document a standalone recapitalization transaction structure, the DIP Facility, and the terms of Studio supply agreements going forward. These extensive and detailed negotiations were facilitated by the extended liquidity runway provided by entering into the Forbearance Agreement.

63. As a result of these negotiations, Blockbuster has entered into a Plan Support Agreement, pursuant to which the holders of approximately 80% in principal amount of the Senior Secured Notes have agreed to the terms of a chapter 11 plan (the “Plan”) to be implemented in these chapter 11 cases. The Plan will substantially delever Blockbuster, and will convert all of the Senior Secured Notes into equity of the reorganized Blockbuster (“Reorganized Blockbuster”). This will provide Reorganized Blockbuster with a capital structure that has the financial flexibility that should enable Blockbuster to pursue its business plan in an optimal manner. Moreover, many of these same bondholders have agreed to provide the necessary debtor in possession financing to enable these cases to be appropriately administered and to effect a restructuring that will maximize value and assure Blockbuster’s long-term viability.

64. In sum, Blockbuster has worked with its stakeholders and interested third parties toward a recapitalization plan to be executed in chapter 11 that will afford Blockbuster access to new capital and liquidity, and will address Blockbuster’s unsustainable financial leverage. Blockbuster believes that implementation of such a recapitalization plan will enhance its ability to pursue its long-term strategy, which provides for Blockbuster to differentiate itself as the only operator that provides access across multiple delivery channels, providing unrivaled convenience, service, and value to its customers. Blockbuster also intends to continue to develop new opportunities and partnerships in the digital space, taking advantage of the widely recognized Blockbuster brand name and its exceptional library of 125,000 titles to expand its reach to new customer groups.

IV.

SUMMARY OF FIRST DAY PLEADINGS<sup>2</sup>

65. Concurrently with the filing of the Petitions, the Debtors filed the following First Day Motions, which they believe, and I agree, are necessary to enable Blockbuster's business to operate with a minimum of disruption and loss of productivity. The Debtors intend to seek entry of Court orders approving each of the First Day Motions as soon as possible in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and the Local Bankruptcy Rules.

Debtors' Motion Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr.
P. 1015(b) Requesting Joint Administration of Chapter 11 Cases

66. Pursuant to this motion (the "Joint Administration Motion"), Blockbuster requests that the Court authorize and direct the joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases and the consolidation thereof for procedural purposes only.

67. Blockbuster believes that many, if not all, of the motions, applications, and other pleadings filed in these Chapter 11 Cases will relate to relief sought jointly by all of the Debtors. For example, virtually all of the relief sought by Blockbuster in the First Day Motions filed contemporaneously with the Petitions and this Affidavit is sought on behalf of all of the Debtors. Joint administration of Blockbuster's Chapter 11 Cases, for procedural purposes only, under a single docket entry, will also ease the administrative burdens on the Court by allowing these Chapter 11 Cases to be administered as a single joint proceeding instead of thirteen independent Chapter 11 Cases.

<sup>2</sup> All capitalized terms not defined in the following summary shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the underlying motions.

68. Joint administration of these Chapter 11 Cases will create a centralized location for the numerous documents that are likely to be filed and served in these cases by the Debtors, creditors, and parties in interest, and for all notices and orders entered by the Court. A single docket will also make it easier for all parties in each of the Chapter 11 Cases to stay apprised of all of the various matters before the Court. Blockbuster will also likely realize substantial cost savings and reduced administrative burdens by sending notices to a single matrix of creditors and Rule 2002 list, rather than maintaining several separate notice lists.

69. For the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the relief requested in the Joint Administration Motion.

Debtors' Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 342(a), and 521(a)(1), Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(a) and 2002(a), (d), (f), and (l), and Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-1 Requesting (I) a Waiver of the Requirements That Debtors File Lists of Creditors and Equity Security Holders, and (II) Approval of the Form and Manner of Notifying Creditors of Commencement of Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases and First Meeting of Creditors

70. By this motion (the “Creditor and Equity List Waiver Motion”), Blockbuster requests a waiver of the requirement to file a list of creditors and equity security holders. Contemporaneously herewith, Blockbuster has filed a motion to retain and employ Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC as notice and claims processing agent (the “Notice and Claims Agent”) in these Chapter 11 Cases. As soon as practicable after entry of an order granting the requested waiver of the requirement to file a list of creditors, Blockbuster will furnish their list of creditors to the Notice and Claims Agent so that the Notice and Claims Agent may undertake the mailing of the Notice of Commencement (as defined below) to the parties on Blockbuster's list of creditors. Creditors and equity security holders will be notified of the commencement of these cases through their receipt of the Notice of Commencement.

71. In addition, Blockbuster requests approval of the proposed form providing notice of the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases (the "Notice of Commencement") and the authority to have its Notice and Claims Agent undertake the mailing of the Notice of Commencement to creditors. In addition to the mailing by the Notice and Claims Agent of the Notice of Commencement, Blockbuster proposes to publish, as soon as practicable, the Notice of Commencement: (i) once in (a) the global edition of The Wall Street Journal, (b) the national edition of The New York Times, and (c) The Dallas Morning News; (ii) on Blockbuster's website at www.blockbuster.com; and (iii) on the website of the Debtors' Notice and Claims Agent, at www.kccllc.net/blockbuster.

72. Given that the Notice and Claims Agent will receive a list of creditors and equity security holders and will use the list to furnish the Notice of Commencement to creditors and equity security holders, filing a list of creditors and equity security holders concurrently with the Petitions will serve no useful purpose. Pursuant to Standing Order 192, as incorporated by Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-1, Blockbuster has consulted with the Clerk of this Court who has granted permission to forego the requirement that Blockbuster file a list of creditors and equity security holders and has instructed Blockbuster to provide the list of creditors and equity security holders to the Notice and Claims Agent, as proposed.

73. For the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the relief requested in the Creditor and Equity List Waiver Motion.

Debtors' Motion Pursuant 11 U.S.C. § 521 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(c)
Requesting an Extension of the Time to File Schedules of Assets and Liabilities, Schedules of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, and Statements of Financial Affairs

74. By this motion (the “Schedules Extension Motion”), Blockbuster requests an additional forty-five (45) days to file its schedules of assets and liabilities, schedules of executory contracts and unexpired leases, and statements of financial affairs (collectively the “Schedules and Statements”), without prejudice to Blockbuster’s ability to request additional time if necessary. The requested extension would give Blockbuster a total of fifty-nine (59) days from the Commencement Date to file its Schedules and Statements.

75. Blockbuster’s management and employees, together with its outside legal and financial advisors, have been working diligently to compile the information necessary to complete the Schedules and Statements. While Blockbuster maintains extensive books and records, completing the Schedules and Statements will require the collection, analysis, and compilation of a massive amount of data. Blockbuster is party to numerous contracts, leases, and licenses that must be assembled and reviewed as part of the process of completing the Schedules and Statements. Meanwhile, Blockbuster is experiencing the considerable stresses of preparing for the filing of these Chapter 11 Cases, transitioning into chapter 11, and the pre-existing, ongoing responsibilities of operating its global business day-to-day.

76. Thus, due to the number of Blockbuster’s creditors; the size and complexity of Blockbuster’s business; the diversity of its operations and assets; and the limited staffing available to gather, process and complete the Schedules and Statements, I do not believe the fourteen (14) days provided by Bankruptcy Rule 1007(c) will be sufficient to complete the Schedules and Statements. Granting Blockbuster additional time to collect the data needed to prepare and file the Schedules and Statements will greatly enhance their accuracy.

77. For the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the relief requested in the Schedules Extension Motion.

Debtors' Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 327, and 330 for Authorization to Employ Professionals Utilized in the Ordinary Course of Business Nunc Pro Tunc to the Commencement Date

78. By this motion (the “Ordinary Course Professionals Motion”), pursuant to sections 105(a), 327, and 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court authorize the Debtors to employ and retain, nunc pro tunc to the Commencement Date, professionals utilized by the Debtors in the ordinary course of business (the “Ordinary Course Professionals”) without the submission of separate employment applications and the issuance of separate retention orders for each individual professional.

79. The Debtors desire to continue to employ the Ordinary Course Professionals to render a variety of professional services to these estates in the same manner and for the same purposes as the Ordinary Course Professionals did prior to the Commencement Date. In the past, these professionals have rendered a range of professional legal services relating to matters including, but not limited to, litigation, intellectual property, corporate requirements, tax, real estate, and employment. It is essential that the employment of these Ordinary Course Professionals, many of whom are already familiar with the Debtors’ business and financial affairs, be continued so as to avoid disruption of the Debtors’ normal business operations.

80. The Debtors submit that the proposed employment of the Ordinary Course Professionals and the payment of monthly compensation on the basis set forth in the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion are in the best interest of their estates, creditors, and all parties in interest. The relief requested will save these estates the substantial expenses that would be associated with applying separately for the employment of each Ordinary Course Professional. Further, the relief requested will avoid the incurrence of additional fees relating to the preparation and prosecution of interim fee applications.

Application of the Debtors Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 156(c) and Local Bankruptcy Rule 5075-1 to Retain Kurtzman
Carson Consultants LLC as Notice and Claims Agent for the Debtors

81. In connection with the application to employ a Claims Agent (the “Application”) and in accordance with the procedures of the Clerk of the Court, Blockbuster has evaluated several potential candidates to serve as Claims Agent. Following that review, and in consideration of the number of anticipated claimants and other parties in interest, the nature of Blockbuster’s business, and the scope of the tasks for which Blockbuster will be responsible, Blockbuster will require the assistance of a claims and noticing agent.

82. Based on the considerable experience in providing similar services in large chapter 11 cases, Blockbuster believes that Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC (“KCC”) is eminently qualified to serve as Claims Agent in these Chapter 11 Cases. A detailed description of the services that KCC has agreed to render and the compensation and other terms of the engagement are provided in the Application and the Affidavit of Albert H. Kass, Vice President of Corporate Restructuring Services of KCC and the KCC Agreement, both of which are attached to the Application.

83. I have reviewed the terms of the engagement and believe that these estates, creditors, parties in interest, and this Court will benefit as a result of KCC’s experience and cost-effective methods. For the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the Application.

84. For the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the relief requested in the Ordinary Course Professionals Motion.

Debtors' Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 345(b), 363(b), 363(c), and 364(a) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003 and 6004 Requesting (I) Authority to
(A) Continue to Operate the Debtors' Cash Management System,
(B) Honor Certain Prepetition Obligations on Account of Service Charges
Related thereto, and (C) Maintain Existing Bank Accounts and Business Forms; and (II) an Extension of Time to Comply with Section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code

85. By this motion (the "Cash Management Motion"), pursuant to sections 105(a), 345(b), 363(b), 363(c), and 364(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 6003 and 6004, Blockbuster requests: (i) authority to (a) continue to operate the cash management system (the "Cash Management System"), as described more fully in the Cash Management Motion, consistent with its prepetition practices, (b) honor certain prepetition obligations on account of Service Charges (as defined in the Cash Management Motion) related to the Cash Management System, and (c) maintain existing bank accounts and business forms; and (ii) an extension of time to comply with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

86. The Cash Management System constitutes an ordinary course and essential business practice providing significant benefits to the Debtors, including, among other things, the ability to: (i) control corporate funds; (ii) ensure the maximum availability of funds when and where necessary; and (iii) reduce administrative expenses by facilitating the movement of funds and the development of more timely and accurate account balance information.

87. As a practical matter, because Blockbuster transacts business through three distribution channels that generate revenue from customer rentals and sales, it would be extremely difficult and expensive to establish and maintain a different cash management system.

Blockbuster, therefore, requests that the Court authorize continuation of the existing Cash Management System after the Commencement Date. The existing Cash Management System is the most efficient and cost effective mechanism for managing Blockbuster's receipts and disbursements.

88. For the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the relief requested in the Cash Management Motion.

Debtors' Motion For Entry of an Order, on an Interim and Final Basis,
(I) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Postpetition
Superpriority Financing Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 361, 362, 364(C), 364(D)(1), and 364(E), (II) Authorizing Debtors' Use of Cash Collateral Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363, (III) Granting Liens and Superpriority Claims To DIP Lenders Pursuant To 11 U.S.C. § 364, (IV) Providing Adequate Protection Pursuant To 11 U.S.C. §§ 361, 362, 363 and 364, and (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing Pursuant To Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001(B), 4001 (C), and 6004

89. By this motion (the "DIP Motion"), the Debtors request entry of an order, on an interim and final basis (collectively, the "DIP Orders"): (a) authorizing the Debtors to (i) obtain senior secured, superpriority, postpetition financing in the form of a first lien new money superpriority priming revolving credit facility with a maximum outstanding principal amount of up to $125,000,000 (the "Revolving DIP Loan") pursuant to the terms and conditions of the DIP Credit Agreement by and between BBI, as Borrower, and its Debtor-affiliates as Guarantors, the DIP Agent, and the DIP Lenders; (ii) grant, subject to entry of the final DIP Order and upon the occurrence of certain conditions as described below and in the DIP Credit Agreement, to the DIP Lenders superpriority claims and priming liens with respect to a maximum of $250 million of Roll-Up Notes (collectively with the Revolving DIP Loan, the "DIP Loans"); (iii) execute and deliver the DIP Loan Documents; (iv) use proceeds from the

DIP Loans and the Cash Collateral for the purpose of (1) operating the Debtors' business during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases, (2) paying fees and expenses of the professionals retained by the Debtors, any Statutory Committee, the DIP Lenders, the DIP Agent, the Roll-Up Noteholders, (3) paying amounts owing to the DIP Lenders, the DIP Agent, and the Roll-Up Noteholders, and (4) financing the Adequate Protection Obligations, all in accordance with the Approved Budget and subject to the financial covenants, terms, conditions, and limitations set forth in the DIP Loan Documents, the DIP Credit Agreement, and the DIP Orders; and (v) to grant to the DIP Agent, for the benefit of the DIP Lenders, a security interest in and valid, enforceable, non-avoidable and automatically fully perfected liens on and in the now existing or after-acquired DIP Collateral (with the priority set forth in the DIP Orders) to secure the DIP Obligations; (b) authorizing BBI, on an interim basis borrow from the DIP Lenders up to a maximum outstanding principal amount of $45,000,000 of the Revolving DIP Loan; (c) authorizing the Guarantors to guaranty the DIP Obligations; (d) granting to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, and the Roll-Up Noteholders superpriority administrative expense claims in each of these chapter 11 cases with respect to the DIP Obligations; (e) providing Adequate Protection to the Adequate Protection Parties on account of the priming of their prepetition liens by the DIP Loans, and for any Diminution in Value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral; and (f) modifying the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code to the extent necessary to implement and effectuate the terms of the DIP Loan Documents and the DIP Orders.

90. Material provisions of the DIP Credit Agreement are set out in the DIP Motion pursuant to, and in accordance with, Bankruptcy Rule 4001(c)(1)(B)(i)-(xi) (relating to obtaining credit), Bankruptcy Rule 4001(b)(1)(B)(i)-(iv) (relating to the use of cash collateral), and Local Rule 4001-2(a)-(i) (relating to the use of cash collateral and obtaining credit).

91. As set forth above, the DIP Loans were negotiated in connection with the Plan and are the product of hard fought, good faith negotiations. The Debtors have determined that entering into the DIP Credit Agreement, obtaining the right to use Cash Collateral, granting the Roll-Up Notes, and providing the Adequate Protection is appropriate and is necessary on an interim and a final basis under these circumstances. Approval of the DIP Credit Agreement and the use of Cash Collateral will provide the Debtors with immediate and ongoing access to borrowing availability to pay their current and ongoing operating expenses, including postpetition wages and salaries, studio obligations, vendor, and other operational costs (such as rent and utilities). Unless these expenditures are made, the Debtors could be forced to cease operation, which would immediately frustrate the Debtors' ability to reorganize. Moreover, the implementation of the Revolving DIP Loan will be viewed favorably by the Debtors' employees, customers, and trade partners, thereby promoting a successful reorganization.

92. For the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the relief requested in the DIP Motion.

Debtors' Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 363(b) and 503(b) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001, 6003 and 6004 for (I) Authority to (A) Continue the Debtors' Insurance Programs and (B) Pay all Obligations in Respect Thereof, and (II) to Direct Financial to Honor and Process Checks and Transfers Related to Such Insurance Obligations

93. By this motion (the "Insurance Motion"), Blockbuster requests authority to continue its Insurance Programs (as defined below and in the Insurance Motion) in the ordinary course and pay its prepetition and postpetition Insurance Obligations. Blockbuster also seeks authority to modify the automatic stay solely with respect to employees and workers holding Workers' Compensation claims so that those employees may proceed to liquidate their claims. Blockbuster further requests that the Court direct and authorize its banks and financial institutions (collectively, "Banks") to receive, honor, process, and pay, to the extent funds are available in its accounts, any and all checks drawn, or electronic fund transfers requested or to be requested, on Blockbuster's general disbursement accounts to the extent that such checks or electronic fund transfers relate to any of the Insurance Obligations.

94. In connection with the operation of its business, Blockbuster maintains various property, casualty, workers' compensation, and management liability related insurance programs through several different insurance carriers, which provide Blockbuster with insurance coverage for liabilities relating to, among other things, general commercial claims, property damage, workers' compensation, automobile damage, general foreign liability, directors' and officers' liability, fiduciary liability, crime, excess umbrella, and various other product and property related and general liabilities (collectively, the "Insurance Programs").

95. The nature of Blockbuster's business and the extent of its operations make it essential for Blockbuster to maintain the Insurance Programs on an ongoing and uninterrupted basis. If Blockbuster fails to pay the Insurance Obligations, the insurance carriers may seek to terminate the existing Insurance Programs, or they may decline to renew the programs or refuse to insure Blockbuster in the future. Absent adequate insurance coverage, Blockbuster could, among other things, be exposed to substantial liability for damages to persons and/or their property.

96. Lastly, Blockbuster is required by law and the operating guidelines of the Office of the United States Trustee in this Region to maintain certain of the Insurance Programs, including Workers' Compensation, general liability, and casualty insurance. Accordingly, the continuation of the Insurance Programs and payment of all prepetition and postpetition Insurance Obligations are essential to preserve Blockbuster's business and the value of these estates for all creditors.

97. For the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the relief requested in the Insurance Motion.

Debtors' Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 363(b), and 507 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003 and 6004 For Authorization to
(I) Pay Certain Employee Obligations and Maintain and Continue Employee Benefits and Programs, and (II) For Banks to Honor and Process Checks and Transfers Related to Such Obligations

98. In this motion (the "Wage Motion"), pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 6003 and 6004, Blockbuster requests:

(i) authority to (a) pay, in its sole discretion, all obligations incurred under or related to Compensation Obligations, Garnishment Obligations, Supplemental Workforce Obligations, Independent Contractor Obligations, Reimbursement Obligations, Payroll Tax Obligations, Incentive Obligations, the Retention Plan, the Severance Plan, and Employee Benefit Obligations (each as defined in the Wage Motion, and collectively, the "Employee Obligations") and all fees and costs incident to the foregoing, including amounts owed to third-party administrators, and

(b) maintain and continue to honor and pay all amounts with respect to its practices, programs, and policies for its employees as they were in effect as of the Commencement Date, and as such may be modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time in the ordinary course of business; and (ii) authorizing and directing applicable Banks at which Blockbuster maintains disbursement and other accounts, at Blockbuster's instruction, to receive, honor, process, and pay, to the extent of funds on deposit, any and all checks or electronic funds transfers relating to any of the Employee Obligations. Blockbuster seeks this authority to minimize the personal hardship that its employees would suffer if the Employee Obligations were not paid when due and to maintain the morale and dedication of its essential workforce at this critical time.

99. Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that if the relief requested in the Employee Wage Motion is not granted, the employees, temporary employees, and independent contractors would suffer undue hardship and, in many instances, financial difficulties, since these monies are needed to enable them to meet their personal obligations. In addition, without the requested relief, Blockbuster's stability would be substantially undermined by the potential threat that otherwise loyal employees and supplemental workers at all levels would seek other employment.

100. For the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the relief requested in the Employee Wage Motion.

Debtors' Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 363(b), 507(a)(8), and 541 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003 and 6004 Requesting Authority to Pay Prepetition Taxes and Assessments

101. By this motion, (the "Tax Motion"), Blockbuster requests, pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), 507(a)(8), and 541 of the Bankruptcy Code, authorization to pay all prepetition valid and undisputed taxes including: Sales Taxes; Use Taxes; Franchise Taxes; Income Taxes; Real and Personal Property Taxes; Business License Assessments; Annual Report Taxes, and any penalties and interest thereon (each as defined in the Tax Motion, the "Taxes and Assessments") to various state and local taxing authorities, including those obligations subsequently determined upon audit to be owed during the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases.

102. Payment of the prepetition Taxes and Assessments is critical to Blockbuster's continued, uninterrupted operations. Nonpayment of these obligations may cause taxing authorities to take precipitous action, including, but not limited to, filing liens, preventing Blockbuster from conducting business in the applicable jurisdictions, seeking to lift the automatic stay, and imposing personal liability on Blockbuster's officers and directors, all of which would disrupt Blockbuster's day-to-day operations and could potentially impose significant costs on these estates.

103. The authority to pay the taxing authorities in accordance with Blockbuster's prepetition business practices will enable Blockbuster to continue to operate its business in chapter 11 without disruption. Accordingly, for the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the relief requested in the Tax Motion.

Debtors' Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a)
and 362(a)(3) Requesting Approval of (I) Certain Proposed Notification Procedures and (II) Restrictions on Certain Transfers and Conversions of Equity
Interests in the Debtors' Estates Effective Nunc Pro Tunc to the Commencement Date

104. By this motion (the "NOL Motion"), pursuant to sections 105(a) and 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, Blockbuster requests approval of: (i) the proposed procedures to protect the potential value of its net operating tax loss carryforward amounts ("NOLs"), net unrealized built-in losses in its assets (the "Built-in Losses"), and certain other tax and business credits (the "Tax Credits," and together with the NOLs and the Built-in Losses, the "Tax Attributes") and (ii) restrictions on certain transfers of interests in the Debtors' estates. The proposed procedures are designed to: (i) notify holders of each class of stock of Blockbuster Inc. ("Blockbuster Stock") of the injunction described below prohibiting acquiring ownership of such stock above a certain threshold and (ii) impose restrictions and notification procedures to ensure the Debtors receive the full benefits of the automatic stay.

105. The proposed procedures in the NOL Motion are necessary to preserve the ability of Blockbuster to use the Tax Attributes, which are valuable assets of these estates, while providing latitude for trading in interests below specified levels. Blockbuster's ability to preserve the Tax Attributes may be seriously jeopardized unless such postpetition procedures are established to ensure that trading in certain interests in Blockbuster is either precluded or closely monitored and made subject to Court approval. However, Blockbuster recognizes that some trading in Blockbuster Stock may not, under certain circumstances, pose a serious risk to the Tax Attributes, and thus, Blockbuster preserves the ability to waive, in writing, in appropriate circumstances, any and all restrictions, stays, and notification procedures contained in the NOL Motion.

106. The relief requested in the NOL Motion is narrowly tailored to permit certain trading to continue. By the NOL Motion, Blockbuster is seeking only to enforce the provisions of the injunction in connection with certain transfers or conversion of Blockbuster Stock that pose a serious risk under the ownership change tests and to monitor (with limited circumspections) other types of trading that potentially pose a serious risk.

107. For the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the relief requested in the NOL Motion.

Debtors' Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a) and 503(b)(1)
for Authorization to Honor Certain Prepetition Customer Programs

108. By this motion (the "Customer Programs Motion"), Blockbuster requests authority to continue its Customer Programs (as defined below) in the ordinary course of business and to perform and honor its prepetition obligations thereunder without disruption.

Prior to the Commencement Date, both in the ordinary course of business and as is customary in the retail industry, Blockbuster engaged in certain activities to develop and sustain a positive reputation with the consumers to whom it markets its goods and services. In connection with these activities, Blockbuster maintains various customer programs and policies (collectively, the “Customer Programs”) designed to ensure customer satisfaction, promote rental and sales growth, meet competitive pressures, develop and sustain customer loyalty, improve profitability, and generate goodwill for the Blockbuster brand, thereby retaining current customers and attracting new ones, with the ultimate goal of enhancing net income.

109. The continuity, viability, and revitalization of Blockbuster’s business as well as its brand as one of the leading retail providers of media entertainment, is dependent upon the development and maintenance of the loyalty of its customers. It is essential that Blockbuster be permitted to continue its Customer Programs and honor its prepetition obligations thereunder. If Blockbuster is unable to do so, its operations and brand will be irreparably harmed by the loss of certain of its customers to Blockbuster’s competitors. Certain of Blockbuster’s competitors maintain customer programs that are similar, if not identical, to certain of those offered by Blockbuster. Therefore, Blockbuster’s inability to honor its Customer Programs would place it at a severe disadvantage relative to these competitors, and would be very detrimental to Blockbuster’s reorganization efforts.

110. Considering the potential for loss of competitiveness absent the relief requested herein, and the resulting impact on Blockbuster’s business, authorization to continue the Customer Programs in the ordinary course of business and to perform and honor Blockbuster's prepetition obligations thereunder, as deemed appropriate in Blockbuster's business judgment, is essential to a seamless transition into chapter 11.

111. For the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the relief requested in the Customer Programs Motion.

Debtors' Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363(b)(1), and 503(b) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003
and 6004 Requesting (I) Authority to Pay Certain Prepetition Claims of Movie Studios and Game Providers and (II) Administrative Expense Priority Status for All Undisputed Obligations Arising Postpetition

112. By this motion (the "Movie Studio Motion"), pursuant to sections 105, 363(b)(1), and 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Blockbuster requests authority to: (i) pay certain undisputed outstanding prepetition obligations owed to various Studios (the "Studio Claims"), and (b) all undisputed obligations arising on a postpetition basis to such Studios.

113. As detailed above, the lifeblood of Blockbuster's business is the delivery of Product to its customers for rent or purchase through three different channels of distribution: (i) retail; (ii) by-mail; and (iii) digital. To ensure it has adequate Product to meet customer demand, Blockbuster enters into various agreements with certain Studios for the purchase of physical and/or digital copies of Product. Given the unique nature of the Product as proprietary, copyrighted material, the Studios are, in most cases, the only parties that can supply Blockbuster with the requisite Product. Consequently, absent Blockbuster's continued performance of its obligations owed to the Studios, Blockbuster would be unable to procure Product to rent and sell to its customers, and, as a result, have no Product with which to stock its retail and warehouse shelves or virtual library. Without the complete ongoing support of the Studios, Blockbuster essentially would be out of business.

114. Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that nonpayment of the Studio Claims would lead to a cessation in the delivery of Product that is essential to its operations. Further, this would cause a default under the Canadian Lien Agreement that would allow the Studios to exercise their rights against Blockbuster Canada, a wholly-owned and profitable non-debtor subsidiary of Blockbuster Inc., which likely would result in a complete shutdown of the Canadian operations. Moreover, payment of the Studio Claims will not create an imbalance in Blockbuster's cash flow because payment of these claims will allow Blockbuster to continue movie and game rentals and sales, which, in turn, will generate additional revenues from which Blockbuster and its creditors will benefit.

115. The ability to pay the Studios is absolutely critical to the reorganization effort. Without the full cooperation of the Studios, Blockbuster would have no ability to effectively compete in the marketplace and would have no ability to assure that it will get the Product that is the lifeblood of its business. Moreover, despite the fact that Blockbuster has contracts with certain of the Studios, most expire on December 31, 2010 and even while they are effective, Blockbuster has little ability to control the Product it is entitled to receive. Simply put, Blockbuster's relationship with the Studios is the lynchpin of the reorganization and it cannot be jeopardized. Granting the relief requested in the Movie Studio Motion will enhance and preserve that relationship, promote the rehabilitation effort and assure Blockbuster's ability to successfully reorganize.

116. For the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the relief requested in the Movie Studio Motion.

Debtors' Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a) and 363 Requesting (I) Authority to Pay Prepetition Claims of Common Carriers, and (II) Direction of Banks and Other Financial Institutions to Honor Related Checks and Electronic Payment Requests

117. By this motion (the “Common Carriers Motion”), pursuant to section 105(a) and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, Blockbuster requests authority to pay prepetition claims of common carriers (the “Common Carriers”) that Blockbuster determines, in the exercise of its business judgment, to be necessary and appropriate to obtain the release of certain goods held by such Common Carriers. In addition, the Debtors request authority, but not direction, to pay any Miscellaneous Lien Claims, on a case-by-case basis and in the Debtors’ sole discretion, that either have resulted or reasonably could result in a lien being asserted against the Debtors’ property. Lastly, the Debtors request that the Court direct applicable Banks at which Blockbuster maintains bank accounts, at Blockbuster’s instruction, to receive, honor, process, and pay, to the extent of funds on deposit, any and all checks or electronic funds transfers relating to the claims of the Common Carriers.

118. Blockbuster’s business relies on a constant stream of Product to its stores and by-mail subscribers, and the maintenance of positive relationships with the Common Carriers is critical in enabling Blockbuster to maintain such an uninterrupted supply of retail goods. The Common Carriers have been specifically chosen to service Blockbuster’s distribution needs in the most cost efficient manner. Blockbuster believes that the cost of establishing new relationships with alternative carriers will be substantially more expensive and unnecessarily disruptive to Blockbuster’s operations.

119. The uninterrupted supply of Product is especially important in the case of newly released movies and games, where the timing of deliveries is critical. Indeed, Blockbuster, in contrast to its competitors, has been granted, by certain of the major Studios, a period pursuant to which consumers can only obtain, via physical rental, certain newly released movies through Blockbuster stores for the first 28 days of a movie's release. Given that a substantial portion of Blockbuster's rental revenues are derived from the rental of newly released movies and games, it is imperative that Blockbuster is able to capitalize on this exclusive period by ensuring that there is no interruption in the delivery and/or availability of newly released Product as of the Street Date. Failure to have newly released movies available in stores by the Street Date would result in a loss of credibility among Blockbuster's valued customers, with an attendant drop in customer loyalty and use of Blockbuster's services. Given the competitive nature of Blockbuster's industry, Blockbuster cannot afford any customer attrition in order to retain its market share. Absent payment of the outstanding prepetition invoices of the Common Carriers as of the Commencement Date, the Common Carriers will likely refuse to continue to transport goods and make timely delivery or seize the goods in their possession as collateral securing their lien.

120. For the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the relief requested in the Common Carriers Motion.

Debtors' Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 363(b), and 503(b) Requesting Authority to Honor Certain Undisputed Prepetition Obligations of Certain Essential Vendors, Suppliers and Service Providers

121. By this motion (the "Essential Vendors Motion"), pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), and 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Blockbuster requests authority to pay, in the exercise of its sound business judgment, certain undisputed prepetition obligations of its vendors, suppliers, service providers and similar entities that the Debtors deem essential to maintaining the going concern value of Blockbuster's business (the "Essential Business Vendors").

122. In recognition of the extraordinary nature of the relief in the Essential Vendors Motion and so as to ensure the benefit estimated to these estates are preserved, Blockbuster proposes that any postpetition payment made to any Essential Business Vendor pursuant to the terms of either of the interim or final orders be deemed to be unauthorized postpetition transfers and, therefore, recoverable by Blockbuster pursuant to section 549 of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that such Essential Business Vendor, after receipt of such payment from the Debtors, fails to provide Blockbuster with any goods and/or services requested by Blockbuster upon customary trade and/or contractual terms during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases. Blockbuster further proposes that, upon request, each Essential Business Vendor be required to provide Blockbuster with written verification of the trade terms to be supplied.

123. Blockbuster operates in a very competitive sector of the retail industry, which requires a continuous supply of the latest Product to be on the shelves of its retail stores and in the queue of its by-mail and digital subscription customers. The Essential Business Vendors are critical to Blockbuster's day-to-day operations because either they are the only source for a particular part, supply, or service, or because obtaining a replacement source would entail substantial delay or significantly increased costs. Moreover, in some instances, the Debtors have essentially outsourced certain of their operations to these Essential Business Vendors because it is more economically advantageous than maintaining such operations in-house. Blockbuster strongly believes, and I agree, that the uninterrupted continuation of its positive relationship with the Essential Business Vendors is critical to its continuing ability to deliver Product to its customers, which ultimately inures to the benefit of these estates and all parties in interest.

124. For the foregoing reasons, Blockbuster believes, and I agree, that it is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and other all parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases that the Court grant the relief requested in the Essential Vendors Motion.

INFORMATION REQUIRED BY LOCAL BANKRUPTCY RULE 1007-2

125. Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2 requires certain information related to Blockbuster, which is set forth below.

126. In accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2(a)(3), and to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, two committees were formed prior to the filing of these chapter 11 cases. An ad hoc Steering Committee (the “Ad Hoc Steering Committee”) was formed in late February 2010 to facilitate negotiations between Blockbuster and certain of its Senior Secured Noteholders, including the Sponsoring Noteholders. The Ad Hoc Steering Committee is made up of approximately 70% of the Senior Secured Noteholder group and is represented by Sidley Austin LLP located at 787 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York 10019. An ad hoc studio committee (the “Ad Hoc Studio Committee”) was formed in July 2009 to facilitate negotiations between Blockbuster and certain of the Studios that provide its Product. Schedule 1 hereto contains the names and addresses for the members of the Ad Hoc Steering Committee and the Ad Hoc Studio Committee.

127. In accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2(a)(4), Schedule 2 hereto is a list of the names, addresses, and, where available, telephone numbers of the creditors holding the fifty largest unsecured claims (excluding insiders) against the Debtors, on a consolidated basis. Such list includes the amount of the claim, the nature of the claim and, if appropriate, an indication of whether such claim is contingent, unliquidated, disputed, or partially secured, subject, however, to the reservations of rights stated on Schedule 2 regarding, among other things, the actual validity of any such claims.

128. In accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2(a)(5), Schedule 3 is a list of the name and address of the Indenture Trustee for the Senior Secured Noteholders, which hold the principal secured claim against Blockbuster. Such list includes the amount of the claim, an estimate of the value of the collateral, and whether the claim or lien is disputed, subject, however, to the reservations of rights stated on Schedule 3.

129. In accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2(a)(6), Schedule 4 hereto provides a summary of Blockbuster's assets and liabilities.

130. In accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2(a)(7), Schedule 5 hereto provides a list of the number and classes of shares of stock, debentures or other securities of the debtor that are publicly held, and, where known, the number of holders thereof, listing separately those held by each of Blockbuster's officers and directors and the amounts so held.

131. In accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2(a)(8), Schedule 6 is a list of the Debtors' property not in the Debtors' possession, including property in the possession or custody of any custodian, public officer, mortgagee, pledgee, assignee of rents, or secured creditor, or agent for any such entity.

132. In accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2(a)(9), Schedule 7 hereto is a list of the premises owned, leased, or held under other arrangement, from which Blockbuster operates its business.

133. In accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2(a)(10), Schedule 8 hereto provides the location of the Debtors' substantial assets, the location of their books and records, and the value of any assets held by Blockbuster outside the territorial limits of the United States.

134. In accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2(a)(11), Schedule 9 hereto is a list of litigation commenced against Blockbuster.

135. In accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2(a)(12), Schedule 10 hereto contains the names of the individuals who comprise Blockbuster's existing senior management, their tenure with Blockbuster, and a brief summary of their relevant responsibilities and experience.

136. The Debtors intend to continue to operate as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

137. In accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2(b)(1), Schedule 11 hereto is the estimated amount of: (i) the payroll to employees of Blockbuster, (ii) payments to officers, directors, and stockholders, and (iii) payments to financial and business consultants for the 30-day period following the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.

138. In accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2(b)(3), Schedule 12 hereto contains the estimated cash receipts and disbursements, net cash gain or loss, obligations and receivables expected to accrue but remain unpaid, other than professional fees, for the 30-day period following the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

Schedule 3
Consolidated List of Holders of 5 Largest Secured Claims

Pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2(a)(5), the following lists the creditors holding, as of September 19, 2010, the five largest secured, contingent claims against the Debtors, on a consolidated basis, excluding claims of insiders as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101.

On a consolidated basis, there exists only one creditor with a secured, contingent claim as of the Commencement Date. The Debtor enters into equipment lease arrangements in the ordinary course of business, but has not listed these herein because the collateral is either of an unknown value or is de minimis in value. Thus, pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2(a)(5), the aforementioned secured creditor is listed below.

The information contained herein shall not constitute an admission of liability by, nor is it binding on the Debtors. Any amounts listed herein are estimated, on a preliminary basis, and are subject to verification. The Debtors reserve any and all rights to assert that any debt or claim listed herein is a disputed claim, debt or lien and to assert any remedies, defenses, counterclaims, and offsets with respect to each of the foregoing. The description of the collateral securing the underlying obligation is intended only as a brief summary. In the event of any inconsistency between the summary set forth below and the respective corporate legal documents relating to such obligations, the descriptions in the corporate legal documents shall control.
